

HINDENBURG SAILS TO U. S. THIS EVE

World's Biggest Dirigible on First Northern Trip

Friedrichshafen, Germany, May 6.—(AP)—Motors of the Hindenburg were put through final tests today and pronounced ready for the giant airship's first North American cruise which begins tonight with 50 passengers and a huge cargo of mail aboard.

The Zeppelin's scheduled time of departure was 8 P. M. (1 P. M. Central Standard Time), and it is due to arrive at Lakehurst, N. J., Saturday afternoon.

An extra motor was taken aboard and technical appliances given a last tuning. More hydrogen gas was placed in the bags and two and one-half tons of food-stuffs shipped.

The passenger list included Sir Hubert Wilkins, the explorer, and Lady Wilkins; Father Jaul Schulte, a Roman Catholic priest who obtained special permission from the Pope to hold mass daily aboard the airship; Ministerial Director Karl Ritter of the German foreign office; William B. Leeds, Jr., and Mrs. Leeds, and Lord Mayor Fritz Krebs of Frankfurt-am-Main.

Lehmann in Command
Although Dr. Hugo Eckener, famous Zeppelin designer and commander, will be aboard the Hindenburg as on its recent maiden voyage to South America, the ship again will be under the control of Capt. Ernst A. Lehmann.

All Germany is expected to listen Thursday evening to a special wireless telephone conversation between Capt. Lehmann and Commodore Ziegenhein, commander of the New York-bound liner Bremen. The Bremen, already at sea, is due in New York Friday. The conversation was expected to take place between 10 P. M. and midnight (3 and 5 P. M., CST.).

Other wireless reports will be exchanged between the Hindenburg and both Friedrichshafen and Lakehurst, so actually four sending sets will be in operation. In addition, three short wave directional senders will operate from Berlin toward the United States to relay the broadcast, but if weather conditions are favorable the listeners in America may hear the Hindenburg and Bremen directly.

Heavy Rains Help Surface Moisture Content In State

Springfield, Ill., May 6.—Generally heavy rains during the past week greatly relieved surface dryness of the soil and brought an immediate favorable response in plant growth. Meteorologist E. W. Holcomb said today in his weekly crop report for Illinois.

Winter wheat improved although its condition remained mostly at average, Holcomb said, and the new supply of moisture had partially overcome the backward condition of plants due to the dry weather in early spring.

Scattered plantings of corn were reported but good seed continued both scarce and expensive. The setting on apple and peach trees was declared to be light because of the unfavorable winter and spring.

Man, 37, Held Under Bond And Charged With Hijacking

Peoria, Ill., May 6.—(AP)—Charles Young, 37, arrested yesterday by federal authorities and city police, was held under $10,000 bond today as a member of a hijacking gang which allegedly has stolen more than $250,000 worth of whiskey from truck leaving Peoria dischargers for midwest destinations.

Three others of the gang—Sam Hargrave, Arthur English and Aural Armstrong, were arrested in a raid on a Tazewell county farm last week. Young, authorities said, was described by the others in the gang as the leader and the one who handled the guns when trucks were robbed. All save Armstrong, whose home is in Medon, Tenn., are Peoria residents.

British Leader of Ambulance Unit Is Lead at Legation

London, May 6.—(AP)—Dr. A. J. Melly, leader of the British ambulance unit in Ethiopia, who was wounded Sunday during native riots in Addis Ababa, died last night in the British legation, his relatives were informed officially today.

Dr. Melly was shot in the lungs while dragging wounded in from the streets.

SOME ODDITIES IN TODAY'S A. P. WORLD NEWS REPORT

CAUSE OF CELEBRATION
Chicago, May 6.—(AP)—"It was our second wedding anniversary," Jack Pumpers, 30, explained to the police who investigated the sound of shooting at his home. "I just thought I'd fire a couple of shots, like we do on the Fourth of July, to celebrate."

COULDN'T FIND HOSE
Ask Fork, Ariz., May 6.—(AP)—It had been so long since this little railroad town had a fire they couldn't find the hose cart when flames broke out in a tourist camp. Eventually the hose was found, stored in a building, and the blaze was limited to four cabins, two garages and a wash room.

STRANGE AFFLICTION
Edwardsville, Ill., May 6.—(AP)—Mysterious blindness of Judith Reilly, 18-year-old Edwardsville high school student, was attributed by a physician today to a temporary nervous disorder. Stricken suddenly as she walked across a school room to sharpen a pencil, the girl was pronounced totally blind by Dr. R. S. Barnsbach.

UNEXPECTED NEWS
Mount Carmel, Ill., May 6.—(AP)—A year ago Mrs. Frank Arnold of St. Francisville, lost a purse containing a small amount of money. Yesterday she returned home from an errand and found the purse empty, lying on a table in her home.

With the purse was an unsigned note stating the writer would make and return the money used as soon as it could be assembled.

PROBABILITIES
Oklahoma City, May 6.—(AP)—Out of jail after serving four days, H. Love, Negro, was not happy.

"I've been away from my servant quarters so long I probably won't have any place to live," he told Prosecutor Walter Marlin. "My sister I was taking care of has probably run away. I had two little kittens and they've probably died. And when my wife gets back from Texas she'll probably hear about this and then there will be trouble."

FOUR INDICTED; FRAUD CHARGED

Attempted to Cheat Government Out of $902 For Rock

East East St. Louis, Ill., May 6.—(AP)—A federal grand jury today indicted four persons on a charge of attempting to defraud the government in connection with a works progress administration road project in Vermilion county.

Those indicted were: Walter C. Dye, Danville, superintendent of highways for the county.

P. L. Wilson, Oakwood township road commissioner. D. L. Moon, Danville, supervisor of the WPA project. James G. Lawrence, a Chicago contractor.

District Attorney Arthur Roe said the indictment charged the men attempted to defraud the government of $902 in providing crushed rock for a farm to market road.

Oakwood township, sponsor of the project, Roe said, purchased an abandoned spur of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railway. The ballast from the spur was to be removed and used in building the road.

Roe said Lawrence, who had represented himself as the owner of a quarry, had obtained a contract to provide additional crushed rock. Instead, the district attorney asserted, rock was taken from the spur and delivered as if coming from the quarry, the government being billed for $902.

Three of Eight Defendants in St. Charles Bank Robbery Case Went to Trial in Federal Court Today

Chicago, May 6.—(AP)—The trial of three defendants of a group of eight charged with the $15,148 robbery of the St. Charles (Ill.) National bank last Jan. 31 was begun today before Federal Judge Philip L. Sullivan.

Those on trial were Frederick T. Hansen, 37, of St. Charles, an ex-convict, Sam Bongiorno, 39, Chicago, and Philip Dimenzia, 32, of St. Charles.

Four others under indictment obtained severances and prosecuting attorneys said they were expected to testify for the government. One of these, Leo Friedman, 23, Chicago, changed his plea of innocent to guilty. The eighth de-

GUARD WITHDRAWN AT U. S. LEGATION

Conditions Normal in Addis Ababa Indication

Washington, May 6.—(AP)—Vice Consul William M. Cramp notified the state department at 6 A. M. Addis Ababa time (10 o'clock last night, C. S. T.), that the Italian guard around the American legation in Addis Ababa had been withdrawn after disarming a number of natives in the neighborhood during the night.

Cramp's radio message said: "The Italian guard has left, having taken a number of rifles from natives in the neighborhood who had been firing during the night. I expect the minister (Cornelius Van H. Engert) early this morning."

His report indicated to officials here that normal conditions in the vicinity of the bullet-scarred American diplomatic mission had been restored.

Minister Engert at the time the message was filed still was in the British legation, where he and other members of the mission had taken refuge early yesterday morning.

Repelled Third Attack
The Italian troops had gone to the aid of the legation after the Americans there had fought off a surprise attack—the third onslaught by Ethiopian bandits bent on murder and loot. Soon after the appeal for assistance, 50 of Mussolini's soldiers and two officers took up their stations outside the legation.

Headed by Minister Engert, the Americans had evacuated the legation and its $10,000 radio station and retired to the well-protected British compound earlier yesterday.

Later, when Italian troops took over the city, Vice Consul Cramp and three naval radio operators returned to the American building. They reported to the state department here by radio that the building was undamaged.

Officials here looked for no further trouble, but to their great surprise they received this message from Cramp:

Began Suddenly
"Suddenly, at about 10:20 P. M. Ethiopian time (2:20 P. M. Central Standard Time) the legation was fired upon from behind the fences on the northern side.

"The entire quarter began a continuous firing and the legation personnel concentrated a heavy return fire on the side of the attack. After about five minutes the attackers retired."

Under the plan suggested by the Commission and adopted by the Lee County Emergency Relief Committee, the following major procedures will be carried out:

1. A letter will be sent to the client advising him that on a specified date, he will receive no further relief unless he makes formal re-application for it.

2. Re-applications of employable clients will be considered only after they have returned to local relief officials three certifications from local employers that they have applied to them for work but were not accepted for employment. If there is more than one employable member in a family, each member must submit three such certifications before the family's application will be considered.

For the convenience of local employers, each employable client will be furnished with three employer's certification forms which he can present for proper filling-in and signatures to the employers to whom he applies for work.

"Every member of the Lee County Emergency Relief Committee is seriously concerned over the present relief problem and genuinely desires to see the time come when our employable men and women will again be self-supporting," said Chairman Spencer.

"We must have the cooperation of every employer in Lee county if this program is to be all we expect of it."

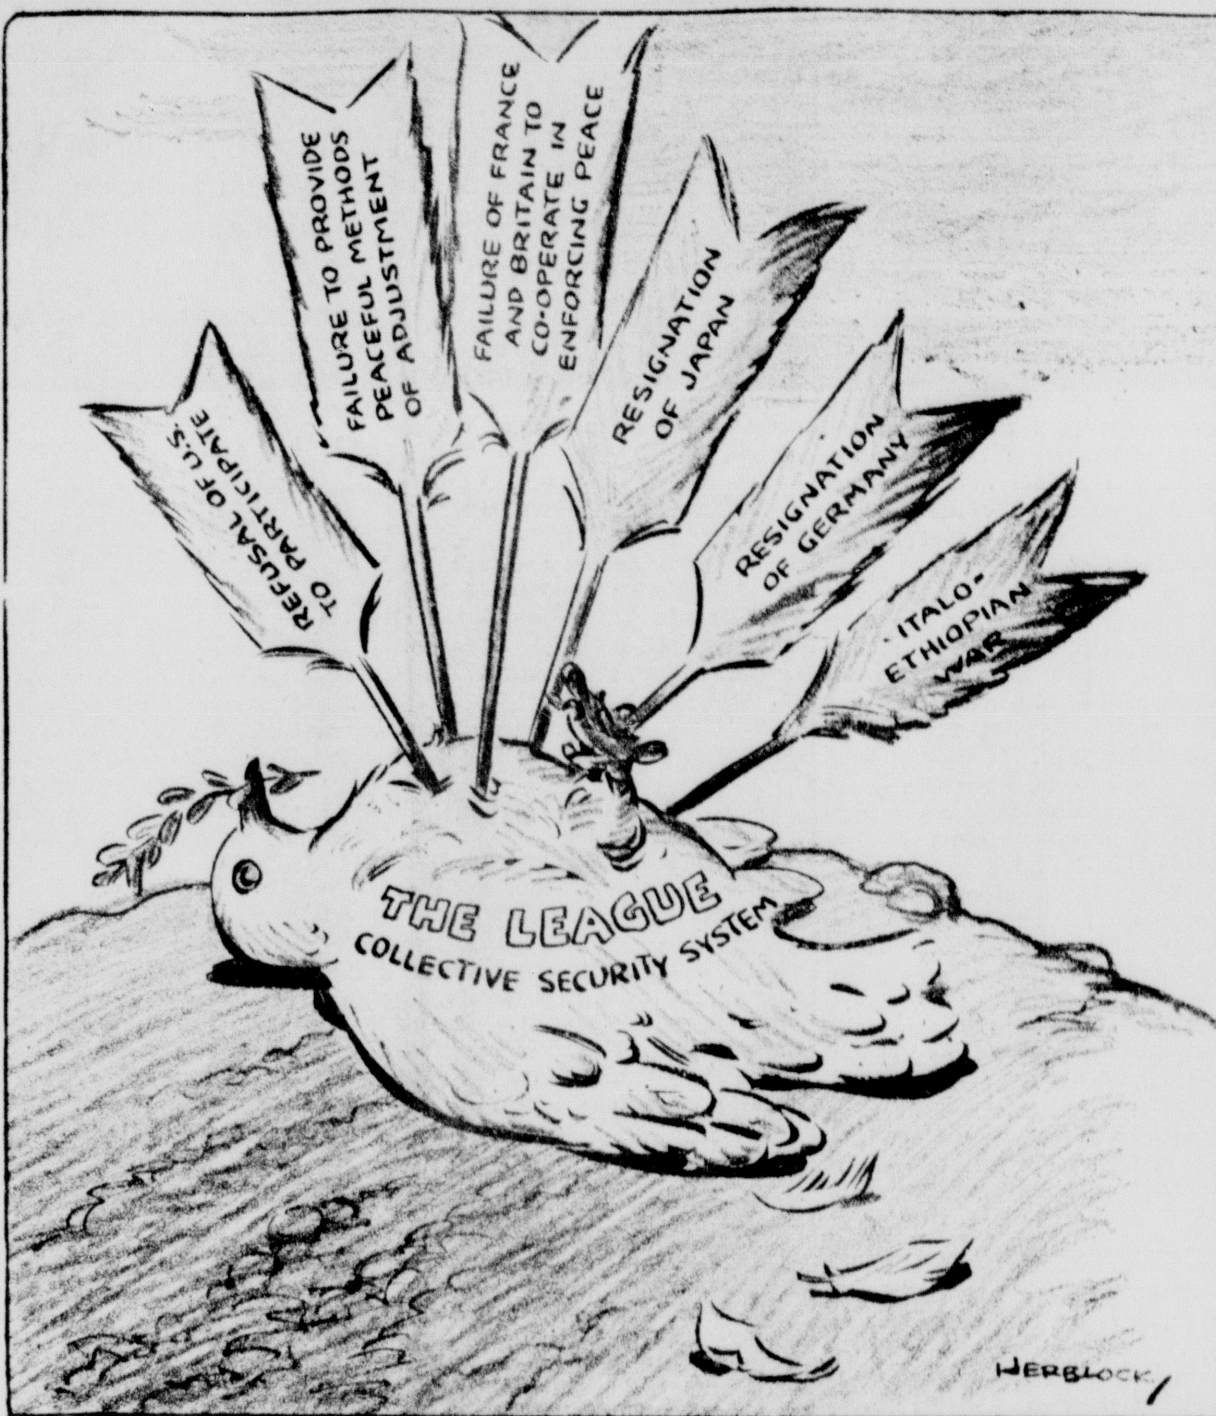

Thursday: Sun rises at 4:48 A. M.; sets at 7:06.

Bureau County Bank Will Make Payment

Springfield, Ill., May 6.—(AP)—Auditor Edward J. Barrett today authorized the First State Bank of Van Orin in Bureau county to make a ten per cent payment of $4,390 on waived deposits.

CHICAGO'S PROBLEM
Chicago.—The city council delegated to the Cook county welfare board the power of administering relief in Chicago after July 1 when under present law the city will be responsible for its own relief financing. S. A. Goldsmith, chairman of a special committee, said about $7,500,000 per month must be raised. He opposed a suggestion that a 50-cent property tax be levied.

WHO KILLED COCK-ROBIN?

RELIEF CLIENT MUST PROVE EFFORTS TO LABOR

IERC Has Ordered Lee Co. Committee To Insist on Proof

Relief will be stopped between now and June 1 for every family in Lee county in which there is an employable person, according to David Spencer, chairman of the Lee County Emergency Relief Committee.

The action is taken in accordance with instructions of the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission, which has ordered its agents throughout the state to require relief clients to search out all employment opportunities that can be found.

Under the plan suggested by the Commission and adopted by the Lee County Emergency Relief Committee, the following major procedures will be carried out:

1. A letter will be sent to the client advising him that on a specified date, he will receive no further relief unless he makes formal re-application for it.

2. Re-applications of employable clients will be considered only after they have returned to local relief officials three certifications from local employers that they have applied to them for work but were not accepted for employment. ## TERSE ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED IN DIXON DURING DAY

VOLUNTEERS HERE

A crew of Volunteers of America is gathering up old clothing, papers, magazines, etc. in Dixon this week, proceeds from the sale of which will be used to maintain the organization's emergency home in Rockford. It was announced a sale of the articles may be held here next week.

ABANDONMENT CHARGE

Annawar Kerley, formerly of this city, has been arrested at Vienna, Ill., on a bench warrant sworn out before Judge Leech in the county court by Mrs. Fannie Kerley of this city, charging wife and child abandonment. Sheriff Miller will leave for Vienna in the morning to return Kerley to Lee county.

NOT KNOWN HERE

Waterloo, Iowa, authorities early this morning sent word to Dixon police attempting to locate relatives of C. M. or O. M. Riley, who claimed Dixon as his home. The message stated that Riley had gone to Waterloo to bury his wife and had gone insane and authorities of that place were attempting to locate his relatives. The local police were unable to furnish any information as to the identification of the man.

Howard Hall Wins Cruise to Havana

Howard Hall, popular radio dealer, is one of 800 dealers selected in the United States for a tour to Havana, as a result of winning a position in the dealer's Philco radio contest held recently.

He will leave Chicago on a special train, Friday, May 22 and will sail with the party on the chartered "Monarch of Bermuda" from New York, Sunday, May 24. Special trains from all over the country traveling to New York from as far west as Los Angeles, Calif., and Seattle, Wash., will carry the winners to the docks. The Philco radio firm is spending approximately $500,000 on two cruises, one for distributors who leave earlier, and one for the dealers in whose party Mr. Hall is included.

Friends of Mr. Hall congratulate him on his winning the trip for which all his expenses will be paid.

Judge Awards Lake Co. Clerk's Office to Aford, Democrat

Waukegan, Ill., May 6.—(AP)—The Lake County Clerk's office in dispute for 16 months, was officially filled by Russ Aford, a Democrat, today after Judge Perry L. Persons ruled he was elected by a 35-vote majority over Lew A. Hendee, Republican.

Charges that ballots had been changed, Judges' initials forged and college students voted in the election—held Nov. 4, 1934—had been made during the contest. Attorneys for Hendee indicated he might appeal.

Five Youths May Face Murder Trial as Result of Death of Man They are Alleged to Have Assaulted in 1934

Cairo, Ill., May 6.—(AP)—Five Alexander county youths may have to answer to charges growing out of the death of April 27, of C. C. Monaghan, former deputy sheriff and manager of the Olive Branch telephone exchange, as the result of injuries received on September 14, 1934, when he was assaulted following an attempt to quell a disturbance.

County officials said today a coroner's jury had returned a verdict finding Monaghan's death had resulted from the injuries received

SLAKE CHARMER BITTEN BY SICK ADDER IN NORTH

Arm Amputated in Effort to Save Life of Louisianian

Montreal, May 6.—(AP)—While police searched for the sick adder which bit him, Edward E. Smith of Shreveport, La., was given a chance for life by hospital physicians today.

His left arm had been amputated in an effort to stop the spread of the poison to his heart, and the doctors said he was "putting up a good fight and probably would pull through."

Smith, who professionally is "Saud, the Egyptian snake charmer," was trying to give medicine to the adder when it wriggled out of his hand last night. It curled around his left wrist and bit him.

The snake charmer tossed the adder to the floor of his hotel room and raced to a neighboring drug store. There he obtained first aid, and then was taken to a hospital where doctors amputated his arm near the elbow.

Meanwhile, the whereabouts of the snake was unknown. The door of Saud's room at the little neighborhood hotel was locked.

The maid merely said: "The door is locked. We haven't the key and we know nothing about it. We have been told not to give out any information."

Local Responsibility

Chicago, its suburban townships and the downstate townships and commission counties would be given responsibility for relief administration and authorized to levy a 30-cent pauper tax on property under these bills, backed by Senator Simon E. Lantz, Congerville Republican and W. H. Hickman of Paris and W. L. Finn of Juka, Democrats.

Republicans and downstate Democrats held that during the summer months the relief problem should be handed back to the local committees, to see if they can handle it. Unless the legislators stay on the job and make further changes, the IERC will quit its present work on July 1 and become the agency for allocating state sales tax funds to the local governments.

Want Definite Program
After the house last night advanced the Ward appropriation and killed two minor bills, several Republicans protested that nothing is being done and asked for adjournment unless the majority has a more definite program. Speeches along that line were made by L. M. Green of Rockford, R. J. Branson

SUMMARY OF RESULTS OF VOTING IN PRIMARY POLL

By The Associated Press

California—Uninstructed slate of 44 delegates to the Republican national convention topped a rival slate pledged to Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas as returns poured in from yesterday's primary. In the Democratic race, President Roosevelt's slate obtained about five times as many votes as the "Epic" and "Townsend" slates combined.

South Dakota—An uninstructed slate claimed by supporters of Gov. Landon held slight lead over Sen. Borah of Idaho with returns incomplete in the contest for eight delegates to the Republican convention. On the Democratic side a slate of eight pledged to Roosevelt had no opposition.

Alabama—Sen. John H. Bankhead and his brother, William B. Bankhead, House Democratic leader, received majorities in yesterday's primary. Roosevelt won the state's 22 convention votes without opposition.

Missouri—Democratic state convention pledged Missouri 30 votes at the national convention to Roosevelt.

Tennessee—Republican state convention endorsed Landon and pledged the state's four delegates-at-large to him.

Connecticut—Republicans assembled in convention today to select delegates having 19 votes in the national convention.

Indiana—All of the state's 12 members of the national House of Representatives appeared assured of renomination, although the count of yesterday's primary votes was incomplete.

RELIEF PROBLEM MAY BE HANDED TO COMMUNITIES

Legislators Seemingly are Ready to See if That Plan Will Work

Springfield, Ill., May 6.—(AP)—Apparently ready to vote $4,500,000 to the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission, legislators today talked of adjourning the second special session to permit the Lantz plan for local pauper taxes to be given a trial.

Leaders of house factions predicted they would unite in passing the ward senate appropriation when it comes up for a final vote tomorrow.

This compromise bill would appropriate $4,500,000 from the state treasury to help the IERC meet its May and June expenses.

Many legislators said that further action is unnecessary at present and that the special session can be recessed or adjourned sine die to permit the Hickman-Lantz-Finn bills to go into operation.

Chicago, its suburban townships and the downstate townships and commission counties would be given responsibility for relief administration and authorized to levy a 30-cent pauper tax on property under these bills, backed by Senator Simon E. ## LEAGUE MUST CONTINUE TO EXIST--EDEN

Britain's Foreign Secretary Makes Plea to House

London, May 6.—(AP)—Anthony Eden, foreign secretary of Great Britain, declared to the House of Commons today: "The League of Nations must go on!"

The cabinet minister, upon whom has devolved British relationship to the Italo-Ethiopian struggle, said the government was beginning immediately a study of the problem raised by the Italian victory in East Africa.

For this purpose, he stated, the government is entering into consultations with the Dominions.

To an interruption by a labor party member Eden pleaded: "At a moment of this delicacy and difficulty, I think it reasonable for the government to ask for a free hand in this matter with this assurance: the government will continue to pursue its policy under the league covenant."

Hugh Dalton, Laborite house member, charged the British "should be ashamed at the pass to which the government's policy has brought Ethiopia, the League of Nations and Great Britain."

Opening the foreign affairs debate in the lower chamber, Dalton indicted the British government with responsibility for the outbreak of the Italo-Ethiopian war.

He asserted the government even made money from the war in East Africa because of its holdings in the Anglo-Italian Oil Company.

Dalton declared the Laborites believe the economic and financial sanctions against Italy for her aggression in Ethiopia should be continued.

"Should Increase" Sanctions
"Indeed, there is a strong case even now for increasing them," he said, "by the inclusion of oil and other subjects on the forbidden list."

In answer to the Labor party member's charges, Eden said the weakness of sanctions as originally applied was that they could not be immediately effective.

"The only sanction that could have been immediately effective was to deny to Italy the use of the Suez Canal," the youthful foreign secretary declared.

"That sanction must have inevitably led to war."

That the British government did not press for military sanctions, Eden asserted, was due to its horror of war and not fear of its ultimate outcome.

Mud Puppy Scares Dixon Girl While Fishing Yesterday

Miss Alice Wilson, 317 North Galena avenue, while fishing yesterday afternoon at the Otto Oberg cottage in the Bend, caught a frightful looking member of the reptile family which frightened not only herself but all of her companions. None had ever seen a reptile of its kind. It was finally released from the hook and Mr. Oberg brought it to the Telegraph office this morning to be identified.

A veteran of many a fishing expedition viewed the reptile and identified it as being a "mud puppy" many of which have been caught on pole and line in Rock river in recent years. The reptile was placed on exhibition at the W. H. Ware hardware store where it is attracting a great deal of attention.

Body of Unknown is Laid to Rest Tuesday
Coroner Frank M. Banker of Franklin Grove yesterday ordered the interment of the body of the aged stranger who dropped dead of a heart attack last week east of the Northwestern passenger station. Rev. Walter W. Marshall of the First Baptist church conducted a brief service and interment was made in Oakwood.

Efforts to identify the body are still being made by the coroner, who is tracing the numbers of an Elgin watch which was found among the aged stranger's possessions.

Funeral of Miss McCoy at Walton

The funeral of Miss Patricia McCoy was held Tuesday morning at 9:30 from St. Patrick's Catholic church at Maytown, Rev. Fr. Burke of St. Patrick's parish, this city officiating. Interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery, in East Grove township north of Ohio. The casket carriers were Johnny Dunphy, Joseph Burke, Arthur McElroy, William Donovan, Edward McCoy and Edmund Downey.

Chicago Produce

Chicago, May 6—(AP)—Potatoes 88, on track 287, total US shipments 735; old stock, slightly weaker, supplies moderate, trading slow, sacked per cwt Idaho russet burbanks US No. 1, 2.30; Colorado McClure fair condition showing some decay 1.70; Wisconsin round whites US No. 1, 1.60; commercial 1.40; bliss triumphs US No. 1, 1.65; Minnesota sand land section round whites partly graded 1.40; Early Ohio unclassified 1.10; 1.15; North Dakota Red River section Early Ohio US No. 1, 1.65. New stock, slightly weaker, supplies moderate, demand slow; Alabama bliss triumphs US No. 1, 2.80; 2.85; US No. 2, 1.75; Louisiana bliss triumphs US No. 1, 2.50; 2.90; Texas bliss triumphs US No. 1, few sales 2.90; US No. 2, 1.90; 2.00; less than carlots. care for 344,000 cases. That was the largest single month's total in the commission's four-year history, he said.

A year ago, IERC records showed, the load was estimated May 1 as 311,000 cases, although the actual number receiving help was only 293,101 cases because the IERC was shut down half the month for lack of funds.

Relief Costs Higher.

Ames said Lyons had also advised him the cost of relief per case this month was estimated at $22 a family donatist and $25 in Chicago compared with a state average in May, 1935, of $19.25. The average per case allowance in Cook county a year ago was $23. Despite the increases in the individual costs of state relief, the finance director, an ex-officio member of the relief commission, was advised the cost of relief to the state was reduced. The federal government pays the cost of the works progress administration which will handle half the load, and the expense for the remaining 176,000 was estimated by the commission at $5,030,000.

The estimated cost in May last year was $14,543,000 had the commission operated the full month. The estimate for May this year was a reduction of 65 per cent although the number of cases was reduced only 43 per cent.

Administrative Costs.
Another reduction was reported made in administration costs. For the last half of May, 1935, the IERC's operating expenses, including salaries, was $832,000. This month, the commission estimated administration expenses at $467,000, a reduction of about 43 per cent.

Ames said this reduction was principally because of two factors—the number of administrative employees has been reduced approximately 50 per cent, and substitution of cash relief for aid through provision of necessities was said by the director to have cut costs.

Eleven Women of Church to be Honored

Eleven women who have been members of the Dixon Methodist church for a period of fifty or more years will receive special recognition at the Mother's Day service on Sunday morning, May 10, at 10:45 o'clock.

The names of the women having the distinction of fifty year membership or more are as follows: Mrs. Hattie E. Dodge, Miss Emma Smith, Mrs. Alice J. Anderson, Mrs. E. E. Winger, Miss Callie Morgan, Mrs. Joseph Beech, Miss Ada Decker, Mrs. Lillian Harrod, Mrs. Clara Peacock, Mrs. Virginia Withers, Mrs. Clara Rowe.

Mrs. Hattie Dodge has the claim to the long—membership having united with the church in the year 1868, while Miss Emma Smith comes next uniting with the church in the year 1870. The average membership of the eleven persons is almost fifty-five years.

Mrs. Dodge who sang in the choir for a period of twenty-five years and has played for the church services on the instruments, will be at the piano next Sunday when the congregation sings America. The minister of the church will speak to the theme, A Tribute to American Womanhood. Both choirs will sing. A large congregation is anticipated.

Birthday Dinner For Lee Potts

On Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Potts, a birthday dinner was given in honor of the natal day of the genial host. The event was a happy surprise to Mr. Potts, who was too astonished to speak when relatives to the number twenty arrived to assist him in celebrating the memorable occasion, planned by Mrs. Potts.

A delicious dinner was served, the table and rooms of the home being prettily decorated with spring flowers. After a most enjoyable day all departed for their homes wishing Mr. Potts many more happy birthdays.

Alumni Banquet Is Most Enjoyable and Successful Event

Two hundred people attended the annual Alumni banquet sponsored by the Alumni Association of Dixon on high school at Brinton Memorial Temple, Tuesday evening. Ladies of the White Shrine served the delicious banquet for the guests.

Three speakers featured a pleasing after dinner program, the speakers being Miss Esther Barton, Senator George C. Dixon, and O. F. Goeke, Dixon school board member.

Miss Barton spoke on "Why An Alumni?" She said the alumni organization was valuable for the perpetuation of friendships and that at present the association is trying to make a list of alumni of Dixon high school that has not heretofore existed.

Senator Dixon recalled amusing incidents of his own high school days particularly the athletic association budget which, 35 years ago, entailed $67.68 annual expenses with receipts at $79.35 making a yearly profit of $11.67. In a more serious vein, he praised such former teachers as E. G. Smith, Mrs. Woodworth, who taught 50 years, Ex-Mayor Truman and Ex-Principal Benjamin F. Bullard. The first three persons' names have been attached to three Dixon grade schools.

O. F. Goeke related plans of the school board and dwelt on the financial condition of the school district.

Interpersing the talks were a song, "Melody From the Sky", by Eugene Lebre, baritone accompanied by Mrs. Myrtle Bishop, a violin solo by Louis Sinow, and a soprano solo by Miss Margaret Ballou, all winning the hearty applause of the guests by their excellence.

Jane Ketchin was toastmaster for the occasion.

Sponsors for the banquet taken from the program, were: Mayor William Slothower, Mrs. Esther Davies, Dr. David Murphy, Lester Street, Mrs. Florence Plummer White, Mrs. E. Trautwein, Mrs. Mary Warner, Sherwood Dixon, A. H. Lancaster, Mrs. Wayne Smith, Mrs. Herbert Nichols, Senator George Dixon, Edward Jones, Mary Hamilton, Betty Zarger, Barry Lennon, Harry Hogan, Phil Reilly, B. J. Frazer, Royal Fitzsimmons, Joe Miller, Edward Vaile.

Regular Meeting of Ladies of G. A. R.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. held their regular meeting in G. A. R. Hall Monday afternoon, with a small attendance owing to the inclement weather.

The Relief Committee gave a very good report.

The members having birthdays during the month, will furnish refreshments at the next meeting and a silver offering will be taken for the order.

Meeting closed in regular form.

To Form Junior Shakespeare Club

The National Junior Shakespeare Club through the assistance of local teachers and club women will shortly form chapters here.

Miss Geraldine Williams has been selected as Supervisor by the club's State representative, Emmett Cunningham. She is a graduate of the University of Illinois holding a master's degree. She has had experience in dramatic work while at the university, and is a Dixon girl of modesty and charm.

The club is educational in purpose and is designed to give grade and Junior High School children a combination course in Expression, Dramatics and Story Telling based on the works of the famous bard, in simplified form and in such a way that it will appear like play to them. At the same time it prepares them for their high school English studies.

Until the number of members enrolled is ascertained, the plan is to have one club. If, however, there is sufficient number, the children will be divided by ages or grades. An appropriate Shakespearean name will be given each Chapter or club.

Prizes will be offered at various stages and diplomas in Elementary Dramatic Arts will be awarded.

each child who has finished the prescribed course.

The grand finale will be Shakespeare play in simplified form or pageant having the children portray the Shakespearean characters.

The National club now reaches into practically every state and has been immensely successful. Aside from the fact that members of the club are improving their education and mastery of English, the social feature is thoroughly enjoyed by the children. Parents and teachers have endorsed the plan with enthusiasm.

Boy Scout News

A meeting of the Blackhawk Area activities committee was held at Byron, Tuesday night.

Present were Dan Metzger of Sterling; Walter Smith, Dixon; D. Cameron Findlay, Mt. Morris; Eugene Thurnhill, Sterling; Harold G. Boltz, Dixon; Herman Brandmiller and A. A. Stocker, Rockford.

The committee outlined suggestions for Scoutmaster activities. They proposed a Council-wide swimming festival to be held late in July or early August, a district camporee, a merit badge exposition and Scout circuit for each district, an achievement round-up to be given in outlining troop activities during the vacation months.

The executive board will approve the program Thursday night.

BARRIERS DOWN.

By Joseph Fort Newton.

HERE is a story of King Edward VIII of England, told by an aide who witnessed the scene. It helps us to understand why he was so famous as a Prince, and will be so beloved as the King.

As Prince of Wales he visited India on one of his long journeys. He drove his car unguarded and unafraid through the streets of Indian cities, along which uncountable thousands of poor people stood watching—the poor cut off by caste from contact with the high-born.

As the car approached the railway station where the royal train waited, the Prince saw the multitudes of the poor roped off, while within the barriers gathered the dignitaries of the province and city to make their formal and elaborate farewells as he took his leave.

To all the high-flown speeches the Prince listened patiently, and returned due acknowledgments. Clipping short his last words in reply, he turned suddenly and asked, "How much time is left?"

"Three minutes, sir," replied the aide. "Then drop the barriers and let the people in,"—indicating with a gesture the hordes of people outside, who had been waiting so pathetically for hours.

"The barriers were down. Like a sweep of a river in flood the interminable masses rolled in, shouting, laughing, weeping, and when the royal train started, ran alongside the royal carriage.

"Look! Look!" they cried. "Behold the Light! the Light!" The man who saw it said he had never seen anything like it before, or since—a tidal response to a simple act of thoughtful kindness.

No wonder as Prince—and now as King—he is everywhere so welcome and so genuinely loved, because he loves people and has a sincere interest in their lives, especially the poor and underprivileged.

Many times I have seen him at the front in war, in London among the poor, in hospitals, in the slums, and everywhere he has the magic human touch, which is the surest scepter of royal power.

Hate poisons, indifference paralyzes, but love empowers those who have it.

Sauerbraten Served In Style

Economical cuts, such as rump or chuck, are delicious as a sauerbraten. Potatoes, carrots, onions, cabbage, with sprigs of parsley, accompany the meat.

By LUCILE HARRIS

CERTAIN ACIDS ADD TEMPTING FLAVOR TO BARGAIN MEAT CUTS

What could be more tantalizing than the aroma which greets you as you remove the cover from a Dutch Oven filled with Swiss Steak or that which stops you as you pass the stove when sauerbraten is cooking for the next meal? It seems hardly possible to surpass these dishes in popularity, yet they are both made from less demanded cuts of meat.

The less demanded cuts are usually the less tender cuts and must be cooked by the moist heat cooking methods such as stewing, braising, or cooking in water. With the added help of some acid—tomato juice, sour cream, vinegar or lemon juice, even the least tender cuts of meat can be made into such flavorful and tender concoctions that the family will clamor for their continued appearance on the menu.

Many foreign cooks have taken advantage of the fact for years that acids added to meat make it more tender and palatable. From the German cooks comes this most delicious recipe for sauerbraten:

Sauerbraten

4 pounds rump or chuck

2 cups vinegar

2 quarts water

3 bay-leaves, 8 peppercorns, 1 clove—Tied in cheesecloth

1 tablespoon salt

1-4 teaspoon allspice

1 1/2 tablespoons flour

3 tablespoons fat

2 carrots, cut in finger lengths

8 onions, cut in eighths

20 ginger snaps

1 tablespoon brown sugar

3-4 teaspoon pepper

Cover meat with vinegar and water mixture and add spices tied in cheesecloth. Cover and hold down with weight. Allow to stand in refrigerator two days. Remove meat, dry and rub well with salt, pepper and allspice. Dust with flour. Brown in hot fat or drippings on all sides. Add onions and carrots. Add one or two cups of spiced vinegar, 3 peppercorns, pinch of bayleaf and 1 clove that were in bag. Cook meat in Dutch Oven, or well covered, over low fire for 1-3-4 to 2 hours. Crumble ginger snaps in gravy and cook for 10 to 12 minutes. Add brown sugar if desired.

The French cooks offer a choice stew to which lemon juice gives an unusually delicate flavor.

Beef and Apricot Stew

1 cup dried apricots

3 pounds flank meat

3 tablespoons fat

1 cup diced celery

Salt and pepper

1 tablespoon minced onion

Shreds of lemon rind

Soak the apricots overnight. Have the meat cut in one-inch cubes. Brown in the fat. Add a small amount of hot water and simmer about two hours or until nearly done. Add the apricots and the celery. Season with salt, pepper, minced onion and a few shreds of lemon rind. Cover and simmer until the meat is tender. Thicken the liquid around the stew with a little flour smoothed in cold water. Serve in the center of a platter surrounded by a border of boiled rice.

But most popular of all with the American people is a well known recipe which uses the same principle as those of our foreign neighbors. There are many variations of this recipe but the most delicious of all is this one.

Swiss Steak

Dredge sides of a thick cut of round steak with flour which is seasoned with salt and pepper. Brown in hot lard. Cover half the steak with finely chopped onions and a little chopped parsley. Turn other half of steak over the onions and add one can of tomatoes, strained, and two finely sliced green peppers. Add more salt and pepper if necessary. Cover and cook in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for two and one-half hours.

Pot-Roast with Prunes

3 or 4 pounds chuck or rump pot-roast

3 tablespoons lard

1/2 pound dry prunes, soaked

2 onions, sliced

4 whole cloves

1 cup cider

1 cup water

Salt and pepper

Brown the meat on all sides in hot lard. Add onions and when the meat and onions are both browned, add the soaked prunes, cloves, salt and pepper, water and cider. Reduce the temperature, cover and let simmer slowly, adding more water from time to time if necessary. Serve with potato pancake or buttered noodles. If cider is not available, diluted vinegar may be used.

Norene Hayden Is Five Years Old

Norene Hayden, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hayden of Palmyra avenue, was five years old yesterday and last evening in honor of the happy event eight little friends were entertained. Pretty spring flowers were the decorations for the birthday luncheon and ice cream, cake and candy were enjoyed, with favors for all. The cake was baked by Mrs. W. F. Weaver, great grandmother of Norene, which is quite unusual. Games occupied the attention of the youngsters and all had a merry time. Norene received many pretty gifts from her little friends with best wishes that she might live to be an old, old lady, and have many birthday parties, because they had so much fun at this one.

Miss Ruby Thompson Guest Mrs. Hartman

Miss Ruby Thompson, a missionary on furlough from Fenhsten Shensi, China, whose home is in Nevada, Ia., was a house guest last evening of Mrs. Ida Hartman and family.

Miss Thompson is on her way to Chicago where she will attend the missionary rally at the Moody Memorial church.

It is most interesting to chat with Miss Thompson who is returning to China in August, as she was one of the missionaries reported missing during the raids of the Red army in 1935 in China. She and another missionary, a girl also from America, hid during the raid and thus saved their lives. Miss Thompson is

Bible Class Had Meeting with Pastor

The Bible class of the Brethren church had a delightful time at the home of their pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. William E. Thompson, last night. The attendance was smaller than usual but every one manifested such a cheerful spirit that the social time was enriched and made of profit to all. Mrs. T. C. Bowers, president of the class took charge of the business and also conducted a round table in which a number of questions were discussed with nearly every one contributing something to the program. It was decided to have the next meeting at the church basement. Refreshments were served after which the class stood and sang, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds", and William Dickey prayed the closing prayer, and after thanking Mr. and Mrs. Thompson for the pleasant evening, retired to their homes.

Patrician Club Dance Tonight

The members of the Patrician club are planning another of their enjoyable dances for this evening in St. Mary's Hall. At this time music will be furnished by the George Campbell, Jr., Orchestra. A good time is assured all attending.

The Lure of the Tropics is No More Delightful Than

El Aguinaldo
CUBAN HONEY BREAD

The alluring fragrance and the enticing nectar of EL AGUINALDO blossoms that grow on the sunny slopes of the Maestra Mountains, near Santiago, Cuba, are but one of the many enticing temptations of the tropics. From these beautiful flowers the bees gather this delicious food product that contains many curative benefits.

On the shores of the Caribbean Sea EL AGUINALDO HONEY is produced by wild black bees. Gathered by natives, transported on foot and by muleback to the North coast, where it is exported direct to our baking plant. Used for the sweetening ingredient of EL AGUINALDO CUBAN HONEY BREAD, it gives the bread a most delicious flavor.

EL AGUINALDO CUBAN HONEY is twice as effective in relieving coughs, colds, stomach troubles and constipation as any other brand of honey.

Blended with the other helpful ingredients in EL AGUINALDO CUBAN HONEY BREAD, it retains an appetizing flavor, and contains many healthful elements.

Try eating EL AGUINALDO CUBAN HONEY BREAD for just ten days. Poisons that have accumulated in your intestines will vanish, and your elimination will be greatly improved. Then KEEP REGULAR by eating it every meal!

IMPORTANT

If your ailment is chronic or severe consult your physician. He may recommend the use of EL AGUINALDO CUBAN HONEY in its liquid form in addition to eating EL AGUINALDO CUBAN HONEY BREAD. On sale now at leading druggists and the better food stores. Trial size $1.00—Family size $2.50.

POST MORTEM

With the collapse of organized resistance to the Italian invasion of Ethiopia, it appears that all is now over except the mopping up and the skirmishes around the conference table. King Haile Selassie has placed himself in the hands of the British. He is the man who trusted the league of nations. Dictator Benito Mussolini of Italy has placed himself in command of the last unconquered section of Africa. He is the man who defied the league of nations.

The war started seven months ago. At that time it was predicted that the conquest would require any where from three months to ten years for completion. Two plans of military action were followed. Marshal De Bono, first to take charge in the field, attempted older tactics and was too slow. He was replaced by Marshal Badoglio, who marched his men in columns and broke up attack masses with gas and bombs. It appears the conquest would have been over sooner had Badoglio been in command at the start.

The conquest was opposed principally by the British who forced the French to commit themselves against it, too. It was opposed by the British, first, because it would give the Italians too much power over the Red Sea area and the British line of communications to India, and because Lake Tana, headwater of the Blue Nile, would be in Italian hands. A half-hearted program of sanctions was adopted under auspices of the league of nations, but it was not severe enough to strangle the aggressors.

We may say the British, in normal times, could have halted Mussolini in his tricks. But at the particular time the fight started, the British were afraid to fight. That is, they were afraid to engage in a war with Italy at a time when they could not feel assured of French help, and when they knew the Germans were likely to jump at any minute. They were also compelled to keep an eye on Asia, knowing that Japan would take advantage of such an opportunity to start a military program that would dwarf Italy's ambitions.

A story is told that when Gen. U. S. Grant was about to take part in his first battle he was scared almost to panic. Then he reflected that probably the opposing commander was as much afraid as he, and took comfort. It seems that the British actually were afraid, and had they remembered the story about Grant, they might have decided that the Italians probably were as afraid as they. But in these days of airplanes, high explosives, poison gas and the fear of deadly, new weapons, a game of bluff is perilous and history may prove that the British were wise.

While the dignity of King Haile Selassie must have suffered considerably, and he undoubtedly is out of a job, we understand he was a philosopher. Knowing that all crowned heads are in peril, it seems he laid away a great store of treasure during his short reign and invested in real estate, stocks and bonds, not to mention a great deal of cash, in foreign countries. So he has a meal ticket.

Selassie was an Ethiopian gentleman, as tenderly nurtured as it was possible for a barefoot monarch of savages to be. But he was a heretic. He neglected to conform in all respects to the tenets of the Christian Coptic church, and incurred the opposition of the priestly class. He obtained his throne by force, and had not had time to heal the wounds left by the old political quarrel before the Italians came. He was afraid to arm his troops generously, and in sufficient numbers, because he knew that when the war was over, if he won, the same guns would be turned against him.

Furthermore, he was enlightened and educated. He tried to free the slaves, and got himself into the bad graces of both slaves and masters.
Probably his life is safer out of the country.

ITALY DRUNK WITH JOY AS ADDIS FALLS

Boisterous Celebration of Victory in Second Day

(Copyright, 1936,
By The Associated Press)
Rome, May 6.—Marshal Pietro Badoglio, establishing Italian rule over Addis Ababa, named Giuseppe Italo, governor of Rome as civil governor of the former imperial Ethiopian capital today.
Roman Fascists accepted this action as a carrying out of Premier Mussolini's proclamation, after the occupation of Addis Ababa yesterday, that "Ethiopia is Italian."
Marshal Badoglio, commander-in-chief of the Fascist forces, telegraphed thanks to Mussolini for Il Duce's praise of the army and workers who effected the fall of Ethiopia's capital.

"We are all happy to have lived up to the country's expectations in our work," Badoglio said.
As Italy's undeclared war on Ethiopia resolved into an unsigned peace, Mussolini immediately enforced a campaign to defend the fruits of the African conquest against the world.
Boisterous Celebration
Intoxicated by the occupation of Addis Ababa and Il Duce's declaration that "Ethiopia is Italian," the nation carried its boisterous celebration into the second day, but Mussolini ruled that domestic business must carry on, to combat the continuing League of Nations sanctions.
Echoing Mussolini's proclamation during the national mobilization last night, "we are ready to defend our shining victory with the same intrepid, irrevocable decision with which we achieved it," crowds shouted, "hear that Geneva!"
A tentative program for transformation of Ethiopia into an Italian possession was already formulated.
"Emperor! Emperor!" twenty thousand jubilant students shouted over and over again to King

Lovely Lorelei

Taking her cue from Lorelei, who combined aquatic with her singing to the enhancement of her charm, Sonia Day, comely young Denver vocalist, finds that swimming makes it easier for her to negotiate opera's high C's. The legendary sailors who cracked up on the Rhine probably never glimpsed a more bewitching siren than Sonia, tugging at a rope on the beach near Los Angeles.

Victor Emmanuel this morning at the Quirinal Palace. The students went there in a triumphal march after proclaiming Mussolini at the Venezia Palace. Il Duce appeared on the balcony of his office and cried, "Viva Italia."

King Saluted

King Victor Emmanuel also appeared on a balcony at his Quirinal Palace in answer to roaring cheers. Dressed in the uniform of a general, he saluted but did not speak as he was greeted with the roars, "Imperatore! Imperatore!"
The shouts recalled frequent rumors that Victor Emmanuel eventually would be named Emperor of Ethiopia, just as King Edward of England bears the title Emperor of India.

Civil organizers said the last African kingdom to be conquered probably would become an Italian colony like Libya, Eritrea and Somaliland, governed by civil commissioners and military commanders, and policed by Italian-controlled native troops.

The tentative plans called for predominant Italian commercial and economic influence in Ethiopia with the possibility of an "open door" policy later depending on the attitude of Britain, France and other nations toward the Fascist conquest.

Proclaiming his readiness to defend Italy's hold on Ethiopia, Mussolini warned, "more than ever I am convinced that to disturb the peace of Europe means the collapse of Europe."

New Sombre Note

Another somber note crept into the demonstration with government poster declaring, "We will remember November 18." That was the date of imposition of economic sanctions, boycotting Italian goods and placing an embargo on shipment of key products to Italy as punishment for the adjudged Fascist aggression in East Africa.

With Fascists proclaiming the structure of Haile Selassie's former empire was "not only dead but entombed," an informed source intimated Italy would go on before the May 11 meeting of the league council contending the last vestige of Ethiopian claims to national sovereignty had vanished.

REPUBLICANS TO DECIDE BATTLE PLANS THIS EVE

To Discuss Deficiency
Appropriation Bill
Soon to be Voted

Washington, May 6.—(AP)—House Republicans were summoned today to a conference tonight to discuss the party's position on the deficiency appropriation bill, carrying the new relief fund, when it reaches the House floor tomorrow.

President Roosevelt yesterday turned down flatly suggestions of some House members for earmarking $400,000,000 of the requested $1,500,000,000 relief appropriation for PWA projects instead of turning it all over to Harry L. Hopkins' works progress administration.

This was one of the issues open for discussion by the Republicans.

Party leaders thought the purpose of the meeting would largely be to obtain an explanation of the measure from minority members of the appropriations committee and after that to determine the Republican attitude.

Rep. Taber of New York, ranking

CONQUEST OF ETHIOPIA IS NOW FINISHED

Italian Flag Waves Over Imperial Palace in Capital

(Copyright, 1936, by The Associated Press)
With the Italian Army in Addis Ababa, May 6.—An Italian flag flew over Emperor Haile Selassie's palace, natives raised their hand awkwardly in Fascist salutes, and Italy owned Ethiopia's capital by right of conquest today.
Marshal Pietro Badoglio, who yesterday headed Rome's victorious Fascist legions into Italy's war goal installed himself in the former Italian legation.

His troops, ending days of native rioting with the suddenness of a guillotine knife, stood guard over the imperial palace, the railway station, the wireless station, and the barracks of the city's military centers.

The long column which Badoglio commanded was still pouring into the city. Hundreds of motor trucks roared through the streets in a steady stream.

Natives Wave Flags

The Ethiopians who had terrorized foreigners and their compatriots alike hid their rifles in the first accessible spot and appeared waving white flags and cheering the conquerors.

The high command took no chances of counter-attacks from any disorganized Ethiopian military groups which might be lurking in the surrounding hills. Eritrean troops were stationed in four positions at the beginning of the imperial caravan highway. Outposts were thrown out with military skill around the outskirts of the city.

The Italian troops were in high spirits. They cheered and sang as they rode in their trucks or marched afoot.

The first truck detachment to enter the capital yesterday contained mainly Eritreans, with the white troops following.

N. Y. Woman There

With the special newspaper correspondents' unit which entered the city with the first troops, was Mrs. James Vinci Ricci, the wife of a New York doctor. She enlisted as a volunteer nurse in the Italian campaign and accompanied the troops into the interior after three months' work on a hospital ship.

Marshal Badoglio's main force consisted of the mechanized units of the Sabauda division and other privileged units especially chosen to represent the whole Italian army.

The column contained about 1,300 trucks and automobiles.
Marshal Badoglio entered the city at 4 P. M. (7:30 A. M., Central Standard time) yesterday.

Find City Sacked

His 30,000 troops found the French Sisters' mission in flames and much of the city sacked from the native riots and pillaging since the Negus Negusti abandoned the seat of his government Saturday.

The Italian troops were fired on by brigands, hidden in eucalyptus groves, as they entered the town, but there were no casualties.

Marshal Badoglio formally reopened the Italian legation which had been closed since Count Luigi Vinci-Gigliucci, former minister to Ethiopia, left last October 26 after 16 days of defiance to Ethiopian demands that he depart.

The commander-in-chief addressed his troops, extending thanks for their labors in achieving capture of Addis Ababa.

"We made it," Marshal Badoglio said proudly.

"Is the war over?" this correspondent asked him.

"There is no enemy, therefore this must be the end," the commander-in-chief replied.

Republican on the appropriations committee, said:

Promises Fight

"There will be a fight. That is determined in advance. But the conference will be more for the purpose of explaining the situation to the membership than to organize the opposition."

Rep. Martin of Massachusetts, assistant minority leader, said the party membership could not determine in advance what position it would take without an explanation of the measure.

Taber said he planned to offer several amendments, adding that "if we could handle the things so we could reduce the public burden we should be a lot better off." He continued:

"There has been a contest between Prof. Tugwell, Prof. Hopkins, and Prof. Licks to see which could demonstrate the greatest incompetence. And one who has demonstrated it on the largest scale seems to have dictated the form in which the bill will be handed to Congress."

Approval of Illinois Pen- sions Doubtful

Washington, May 6.—(AP)—A social security board spokesman said today a decision on the Illinois old age pension act probably would be forthcoming within a week.

The Illinois act has been the subject of discussion at two meetings of the board within the past few days, it was learned, and is slated for further consideration and probably final action at an early date.

Approval of the act by the board would enable the state to increase the maximum pension payments from $15 monthly to $30.

The act, however, was described by the spokesman as a "borderline case" and he said its approval was "doubtful" although "possible."

The act was passed by the state's general assembly over the veto of Gov. Henry Horner who said it failed to conform with the requirements of the federal social security act. The measure of state control over the 102 county boards which would administer the act was said to be the chief cause of concern to the board here. It was the lack of this control which Horner cited when he vetoed the measure.

NEW TRADE PACT WITH FRANCE TO BE CONSUMMATED

Agreement Reached on Terms; To Be Signed
Late Today

Washington, May 5.—(AP)—The state department announced today an agreement with France on a reciprocal trade pact which is to be signed in Washington late this afternoon.

Although no details of the agreement were available immediately, great importance was attached in both countries to the commercial accord which is intended to lower certain restrictions now applied by the French against American products.

France is America's fifth best customer and the new agreement is regarded by state department officials as second only in importance to American foreign trade to that recently entered into with Canada.

The pact will represent the thirteenth to be negotiated by the state department under this government's reciprocal trade program.

Year of Negotiations

Negotiations with France have been proceeding more than a year.

It was understood agreement on the last remaining technicalities was reached only last night.

The new pact will apply not only to France but to its colonies dependencies and protectorates as well, with the exception of Morocco.

In the main the United States exports to France such products as unmanufactured cotton, petroleum products, refined copper, leaf tobacco, wheat, lard and apples and pears. Its chief imports from France are luxury articles such as silk and silk garments, gloves, furs, precious stones, machine-made lace, perfumery, and paintings and other works of art.

American exports to France in 1929 were valued at $265,591,895 but dropped to $115,706,656 in 1934. Imports from France fell off also, from a value of $171,485,155 in 1929 to $57,326,673 in 1934.

BETTING AT N. Y. TRACKS IS HELD ILLEGAL

Albany, N. Y., May 6.—(AP)—Attorney General John J. Bennett, Jr., ruled today that betting at New York race tracks is illegal.

The opinion was handed down at the request of Democratic Senate leader John J. Dunnigan.

After quoting from an article in the state constitution and two sections of the penal law, the Attorney General held:

"From these provisions, I conclude that betting at race tracks is illegal in New York state. However, whereas the offense was formerly a misdemeanor and punishable as such, the legislature under the laws of 1926 as amended in 1934 has made a civil forfeiture the sole penalty therefor."

The section of the laws of 1934, relating to penalties, was pointed out. Briefly, this makes bookmakers, previously liable to criminal prosecution, subject only to a civil action for recovery by a person or persons who may have wagered with them and lost.

Dunnigan, in asking the opinion last week, said he believed that betting as it now exists is illegal, and said he might test the law in the courts.

The skull of an African tree lion was unearthed in Alaska in 1935.

Dixon Cinder Warriors Beat Sterling by 68 1-3 to 53 2-3 Score Tuesday

Ineligibilities, Injuries Hit Local Team

Cripples, and ineligibles hampered but did not prevent Dixon high school's intrepid track warriors from defeating Sterling's "trackless" team here Tuesday afternoon, and the Purple and White banner was kept unsold by a loss in a dual meet, a record the locals have maintained four years.

It became apparent from the very beginning of the meet with Coach Ted Scheid's Gold men that the going would be rough for the locals. Hansen, Dumphy, and both Lloyd and Don Miller were kept from the paths by ineligibility while McMillion and Klein were far from being in the best of condition. Mickey had a swollen thigh muscle, pulled a week ago and Klein had a painful groin muscle.

Leading off with the 120 yard high hurdles Sterling went into a 5 to 4 lead by virtue of Wheeler's first place dash in a record time of .16 seconds for the meet, outdoing Baldwin's .163 record made in 1934. Baldwin also hailing from Sterling. McMillion and Schumm of Dixon took second and third.

Locals Pressed Hard
Thenceforth the locals forged ahead but were constantly pressed by Township's athletes, Dixon being only two points ahead with only the javelin, broad jump and relay remaining. The locals placed first and second in the first two events however, clinching victory despite a reverse in the relay race which was stepped off by the Sterling team in 1:37.6 time. Sterling's relay quartet was composed of Sundberg, Miller, Wheeler and Vallee.

In a desperate struggle for high jump excellence Darrell Reis and Seagren of Sterling tied by establishing a new record leap of 5 feet 6 1/2 inches to beat Strong of Dixon's 1930 figure of 5 feet 5 inches.

The Summary.
100 yard dash—Thompson (D), Sundberg (S), Vallee (S). Time—:20.6.
200 yd low hurd—Wheeler (S) McMillion (D), Schumm (D). Time—:24.5.
440 yard dash—Stitzel (D), Miller (S), Stabler (S). Time—:54.2.
880 yard run—Jensen (D), Heller (S), Messner (D). Time 2:13.9.
1 mile run—Heller (S), K. Nelson (D), Gilden (S). Time 5:07.3.
120 yard high hur—Wheeler (S), McMillion (D), Schumm (D). Time :16 (record).
220 yard dash—Thompson (D), Sundberg (S), Vallee (S). Time —:23.5.
Pole vault—Magin (S), Washburn (D), and Hills (S), Baker (S) and Swain (D), third. Height 10 feet, 3 inches.
Shot put—Krug (O), Rebeck (D), Hussong (S). Distance 41 feet 8 inches.
Broad jump—Wetter (D), McMillion (D), Sundberg (S). Distance 20 feet, 1 inch.
High jump—Reis (D) and Seagren (S) first, Klein (D). Height 5 feet, 6 1/2 inches. (Record).
Discus throw—Long (S), Krug (D), Ankeny (D). Distance 99 feet, 4 inches.
Javelin throw—Coakley (D), Krug (D), Sims (S). Distance 136 feet, 10 inches.
Relay race—Won by Sterling. Time 1:37.6.

U. S. BRITAIN TIE OPENING CUP MATCHES

Will Play the Singles Matches Today At Glen Eagles

Glen Eagles, Scotland, May 6.—(AP)—The United States and Great Britain finished their four games competition for the Curtis Cup all square today, each side winning one match and the other being tied.

After Wanda Morgan, the British champion, and Mrs. Marjorie Ross Garon had won the last hole to the Mrs. Glenna Collett Vare, Philadelphia, and Patty Berg, Minneapolis, Mrs. Maureen O'Neill, Chicago, and Mrs. Helen Grier, Santa Monica, Calif., defeated Pam Barton and Mrs. J. S. Walker two and one.

But in the last match out, Miss Jessie Anderson, playing over her home course, and Mrs. Helen Holm, former British women's champion, scored a three and two victory over Mrs. Opal Hill, Kansas City, and Charlotte Glutting, South Orange, N. J.

The matches were played over 18 holes, each pair hitting alternate shots with one ball.

The competition was to be concluded this afternoon with the six singles matches, the pairings for which were: Vare vs Morgan, Berg vs Holm, Glutting vs Barton, Grier vs Walker, Cheney vs Anderson, and Hill vs Garon.

Britons Surprise U. S. Fighters By Taking Matches

London, May 6.—(AP)—The new crop of British heavyweight boxers evidently has never heard that the huskies from the land of the dropped "h" are supposed to assume a prone position as soon as they enter the ring.

That was the case, at least, when a team of British amateurs stepped out in the international golden gloves tourney last night and whipped the representatives of the New York Daily News A. A. in seven out of eleven bouts. A pair of burly heavyweights, Vince Stuart and Roger Hunter, turned in a pair of the most impressive triumphs to give the home forces the victory.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

One Year Ago Today—Losing to Boston, 2-1, in Cleveland, the Indians yielded first place in the American League to the idle Chicago White Sox.

Five Years Ago Today—Jimmy Slatery was matched for a return game with Maxie Rosenbloom for the light-heavyweight title.

Ten Years Ago Today—The Cards scored three runs on three hits in the first inning of their game with Brooklyn and won out, 6-1, in St. Louis.

RED SOX LOOK BETTER THAN DETROIT NOW

Experts Hasten to Revise Forecasts Made Earlier

By ANDY CLARKE
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The baseball soothsayers are hurrying to amend their choices as the Red Sox gain momentum and the Detroit Tigers find barriers heaped along the way.

Many of the experts, including Broadway's noted picker, Jack Doyle, have leaped from the bandwagon of the Tigers to string along with the team Tom Yawkey built. They figure that with Hank Greenberg out of the Tiger lineup for more than a month with a broken wrist, and Lefty Grove, Wes Perrell, Jimmie Fox and the rest clicking in top form with the Sox, the odds are on the Boston team to lead the way down the stretch in late September. Another prospect is that the Yankees, with a fine all-around pitching staff and Joe Di Maggio and Frankie Crosetti playing sensationally, may take command of proceedings.

Grove's Fifth Victory
Grove turned in his fifth straight victory and his third shutout of the season yesterday as the Red Sox beat the Tigers 2-0. Lefty gave five hits and Roger Cramer and Dusty Cooke gave him some great backing, robbing the Tigers of at least three two-baggers with spectacular plays. Mickey Cochrane, back in the game despite his injured foot, hit a double and a single. Eldon Auker, on the mound for Detroit, allowed only seven hits.

Grove's win, however, featured pitching performances only because it was the fifth in succession. The chapter for the outstanding exhibition goes to slender Danny MacPayden of the Boston Bees who beat the St. Louis Cards 1-0, allowing only three hits. He bested Paul Dean who allowed only five safeties. The lone run was made when Bill Urbanski smashed a triple and Gene Moore followed with a single.

Schott Beat Giants
Other fine pitching chores included one by one Gene Schott of the Reds, who pitched five hit ball in a 5-2 victory over the Giants; Jim Weaver's six-hit pitching which gave the Pirates a 4-0 shutout over the Dodgers; Bill Lee's five-hit victory which enabled the Cubs to defeat the Phillies 5-4, and Pat Malone's feat of completing his first game since 1934 to give the Yankees an 8-2 decision over the luckless Browns.

The Athletics defeated the White Sox 8-5, with Wally Moses ending the game in dramatic fashion with a home run with two on and two out in the tenth inning. The Cleveland Indians brought some timely hitting into play to defeat the Senators 6-4.

Southern U. Votes To Keep Football

Sewanee, Tenn., May 6.—(AP)—The board of regents of the University of the South voted late last night to retain football as an intercollegiate sport and spiked a report that the athletic board was to have control of scholarship awards.

After more than six hours of debate on whether to abolish or retain the sport, the regents, headed by Bishop Theodore Bratton of Mississippi, acting chancellor of the university, issued a terse statement: "Sewanee will stay in the South-eastern conference. The board of regents of the University of the South x x x have voted to make available 32 full scholarships to be awarded to selected students by regularly appointed authorities of the university.

"This action disposes of the rumor that scholarships were to be awarded by the athletic board of control."

NURSES
will find Record Sheets at The B. P. Shaw Printing Co.

Badgers Welcome New Coach

Placing entirely in his hands the athletic destinies of the University of Wisconsin, officials and students of the Badger institution accorded Harry Stuhldreher, new athletic director and football coach, a grand welcome on his arrival at Madison. Here he is, at a luncheon in his honor, talking over things with President Glenn Frank, right. The former, quarterback of Notre Dame's Four Horsemen, and recent Villanova mentor, succeeds the departed athletic director, Dr. Walter E. Meanwell, and erid coach Clarence (Fat) Soears.

GRUNTS EVEN IN BIG WRESTLING MATCH LAST EVE

Ali Baba Defeated Mr. Dick Shikat After Night of Groans

New York, May 6.—(AP)—Ali Baba, the Terrible Turk from the United States navy, is now the world's heavyweight wrestling champion, as those things go, and the "wrestling trust" can take it or leave it.

Ali Baba (born Arteen Ekizian) took Mr. Dick Shikat, the Terrible Teuton, in hand at Madison Square Garden last night and flung him hither and thither with gusto and abandon. After 53 minutes and 37 seconds of that sort of thing, Mr. Baba (205 lbs.) got a crotch hold on Mr. Shikat (227) and heaved him heavily to the mat.

As Mr. Shikat lay there trying to remember if he had left the light on in the bathroom at home, Mr. Baba leaped upon him with a body press, and this week's wrestling match of the century was over.

Ali may be slowing up, because it took him only 46 minutes and 40 seconds to destroy Shikat's faith in human nature at their former meeting, in Detroit April 25.

Grunting About Even.
Two or three times during the roughhouse last night Mr. Baba appeared to be in agony, but the grunting was about even. Shikat groaned loudest, but the Kurd put more feeling into it.

Mr. Joe Humphreys, the world's famous announcer, introduced Ali Baba as a "new terror type of Turk," thereby frightening a couple of customers into a sound sleep.

After it was over, Ali Baba consented to have his arm held aloft while he was proclaimed "champion of the world," and he bowed like an ambassador. There was none of that ribald stuff like "Hello, mom, Hello, pop." He is the dignified type.

All the time Ali Baba was bow-

McLARNIN AND CANZONERI TO CLASH FRIDAY

Both Have Built Ring Careers in 12 Years

New York, May 6.—(AP)—At the risk of confusing a boxing match which has the fans so steamed up they'll probably buy out all the seats in Madison Square Garden by Friday with the current crop of political orations, let us compare the records of Jimmy McLarnin and Tony Canzoneri.

They are due to fight ten rounds or less in the big battle pit on Eighth avenue, with no title but a lot of prestige at stake. An advance sale of more than $30,000, indicating a probable sellout according to Garden officials and the fluctuating but always close betting odds, attest the public interest in this first meeting between two of the best little fighters in the game.

Records Back to 1924.
Their records, going back to 1924 for Vancouver Jimmy and a year later for Canzoneri, list several of the same opponents but an entirely different system of keeping on top of the list.

McLarnin, figuring a boxer has just so many good fights in his system and that there's no use wasting one when there's no big money rolling in, has fought 74 times. He's won 42 decisions, scored 19 knockouts, drawn three times, been knocked out once and lost nine times.

Canzoneri, believing there's nothing like a good fight to keep a man right on the edge for fighting, has had almost twice as many battles, 138 in all. His record shows 34 knockouts plus 79 decisions on the credit side, ten draws and a no decision bout against 14 defeats. He's never been put down for the count in all that long career.

$2,825 In Aurora Pool But Nobody Has Combination
Chicago, May 6.—(AP)—There was $2,825 in the daily double pool at the Aurora race track yesterday but nobody had the payoff combination.

Benny B won the second race at odds of $228.60 for $2 and Jeu De Bar took the third at $76.40. Nobody had them paired in a daily double ticket, so the pool was divided between those who picked half of the combination. Denny B's backers receiving $98.80 and Jeu De Bar's $49.20.

A win parlay on the two horses would have paid $8,727.50 for a two dollar wager.

TERRAPLANE

against the best any other low priced car can do!

Drive as many of the other low priced cars as you care to... particularly the other three leading "makes." Then take a "Discovery Drive" in a Terraplane.

You will find very little difference in price for the model you want... but a big difference in what you get for what you pay.

JUDGE STYLE—Terraplane against the other three, with the only 1936 design that is entirely new.

CHECK SIZE AND ROOM—Full 115-inch wheelbase in Terraplane... up to 3 inches more than the others. And 145 cubic feet of inside space... more head room, leg room, seating room.

TEST EASE OF HANDLING—Something brand new here... Tru-Line Steering and Radial Safety Control, patent applied for. Exclusive in Terraplane.

TRY RIDING COMFORT—Terraplane's Rhythmic Ride, against the ride you get in any other low priced car.

CHECK PERFORMANCE—88 or 100 horsepower in a Terraplane... 3 to 9 more than any of the other three leaders. More power per ton, and smoothness no other low priced car approaches.

TEST BRAKES—Terraplane is the only low priced car with latest, finest hydraulics, and a separate safety braking system operating from the same brake pedal if ever needed. Plus a third braking system from the easy handling parking brake.

MEASURE SAFETY—Only Terraplane, of the leading four, has a body all of steel with solid, seamless steel roof.

COMPARE ECONOMY—Terraplane averaged 23.95 miles per gallon in the Los Angeles-Yosemite Economy Run, with 3 passengers and baggage—with no coasting.

CONSIDER RUGGEDNESS—We'll show you owner records of 125,000, 150,000 miles and up. Ask any other low priced car to match them.

Just come in and say, "Show me." We'll back Terraplane... every time.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Banker and daughters of Elgin spent Sunday with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Banker at this place.

Celebrate Golden Wedding
Mr. and Mrs. William Holley quietly celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home at this place Monday. This worthy couple have lived in our town for many years, have always been very honorable and upright in their dealings with their fellowmen.

Good loyal members of the Presbyterian church, Mrs. Holley is a member of the W. C. T. U. and the Aid Society of her church. They both have worked hard in their truck garden having accumulated some but have always been charitably inclined ready at all times to help a worthy cause.

They received many cards and several called on them during the day, Mrs. Holley has taught the Ladies' Bible class in the Presbyterian Sunday school for years.

We most sincerely join with a large circle of friends in wishing this worthy couple many more happy wedding anniversaries.

A number of relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Holley Sunday where a lovely dinner was enjoyed. Those present were their son Charles Holley, wife and sons of Urbana; Mr. and Mrs. Kentz of Princeton; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson of Buda; Mr. and Mrs. Lem Johnson of Sheffield; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wooden of Chicago; Rev. and Mrs. C. P. Blekking and family of this place.

Married Saturday
Edward R. Taubenheim of this place and Miss Pearl R. Pankhurst of Amboy were united in marriage Saturday morning in Dixon by Rev. Paul Gordon. After the wedding ceremony the happy couple enjoyed a honeymoon trip to Marengo and Chicago.

They will reside in the tenant house of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Taubenheim, who are farming what is known as the Graves farm, south of town.

The friends of both, in Amboy and Franklin Grove are extending congratulations and wishing them many years of happy married life.

Brethren Church
The church of the Brethren on Sunday morning. Special singing by the choir. Several readings will be given. The pastor, Rev. Paul Studebaker will preach a sermon appropriate for Mother's day.

In the evening Missionary Arthur Miller will give a talk about his work in India.

Commencement Exercises
The commencement exercises of the rural schools will be held on Tuesday evening, May 12th in the Methodist church at 8 o'clock.

Class Motor—B2, Class Flower: Sweet Pea; Class Colors—Blue and Gold.

Following are the schools and pupils who will graduate:

Hausen school—Eunice Miller, teacher; Betty Jane Gilroy and Robert Reed.

Pine View school—Nina Coffman, teacher; Kathleen Mary Karper, Earl William LeFevre and Russell Calvin Collins.

Sunday school—Doris Thompson, teacher; Lela Mielke, Lola Mielke, Blanche Louis Butterfield, Harck school—Leona Phillips, teacher; Leona Francis Donnelly, Dorothy M. Jessee.

Dysart school—Viola J. Wagner, teacher; Mary Margaret Nowles, Marjorie Ellen Breeze.

Kesselring school—Wayne Weber, teacher; Milford Lee Cruise.

Mong school—Edith Carr, teacher; Marcella Frances Pull, Leona A. Petrie, and Robert Lee Wilson.

Presents Beautiful Flag
Miss Adella Helmershausen, through Robert Fish, presented the Boy Scout Troop 110 with a beautiful silk flag, size 3x5 feet with staff complete. Any one who is familiar with Boy Scouts know just how delighted they were to have a flag all their own. Scout Master Frank Senger and committees are as pleased as the Scouts.

We often wonder sometimes if the parents realize just what the Boy Scout work means to a lad. It is just one fine splendid organization of that boy influence, must do a certain amount of study in order to pass certain tests that they might be first class, second class, star, life and eagle scouts. Talk it over with your boy, then have a talk with Scout Master Frank Senger. You never will regret the money spent and will be proud of that son of yours, some day.

School Picnic
Instead of the regular meeting of the Hausen School Community club a picnic was held Friday afternoon. It being the last day of school. About forty were present to enjoy the lovely picnic dinner with ice cream and lemonade. The teacher, Miss Eunice Miller has been rehired.

Marker Placed
In memory of Mrs. Lucy Tolman Cook, a marker placed by the former students of the Franklin Grove high school will be dedicated on Memorial Day in the Franklin Grove cemetery. All students and their friends are invited to be present. Frank C. Brayton of Lyons, Ia. for whose mother, Mrs. Cook was named, is expected to make the dedicatory speech. It is hoped that the class of 1883 will be present.

Return Party
The freshman class of the Franklin Grove Community high school gave their return party Friday night in Kersten hall. Over fifty were present. The evening was spent in playing games. The captains and those who won high score were chosen as honored guests. At the close of the program these honored guests marched into the hall as follows, which furnished much amusement. Eleanor Yocum, May Queen, Georgia Peterman and Fred Fess as maids of honor, Ted Phillips as the princess, Raymond Patterson and Orville Fess, doormen. Following this refreshments of ice cream and pie were served. The party was in charge of supervisor, Prof. O. W. Cozzens, president of the class, June Miller. The refreshment committee was: June Hatch, chairman, Betty Bettendorf and Marie Black. Entertainment committee, Josephine Kelley, chairman, Robert Kint and Evelyn Kuhn. Arrangement committee, Gerald Emmert, Marvin Brown and Bill Ives. Owing to the illness of Prof. Cozzens, Miss Beatrice Hunter assisted the committee. All report a good time.

Anna G. Lookingland Barnhardt
Anna G. Lookingland was born in Howard county, Md. April 12th, 1859 and passed away in Sandwich, Ill., April 30, 1936 following an illness of a few months. In early childhood she came to Illinois with her parents who settled in the vicinity of Franklin Grove.

About twenty-five years ago she moved to Sandwich, Ill. March 28, 1929 she was married to George Barnhardt of that city.

She leaves to mourn her departure her husband and six sisters: Mrs. Laura Miller, Mrs. Mary Sanders, Mrs. Ida Lott, Mrs. Grace Buck, and the Misses Drucie and Soloma Lookingland all of this place, also a number of nieces and nephews, and a host of friends. One sister and four brothers preceded her to the Great Beyond.

The life of the deceased was one of faithful service, with the interest and welfare of others always at heart. She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon from the home of her sister, Mrs. Laura Miller, Rev. C. P. Blekking of the Presbyterian church officiating. Mrs. Maurice Cluts sang two funeral hymns accompanied at the piano by Miss Barbara Kohl.

Casket bearers were nephews of the deceased, Elmer Sander, Lester Lott, Roy Miller, Richard and Wilbur Buck of this place and Osborn Ploger of andwich. Burial was in the Emmert cemetery, west of town.

Those from a distance to attend the funeral were Mrs. Maggie Lookingland and daughter, Mrs. Earl Apfel of Beloit, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ploger and family, Misses Connie and Louise Barnhardt of Sandwich, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barnhardt and Mr. and Mrs. Morrissey of Plano, Ill.

Woman's Club Meeting
The regular meeting of the Woman's club was held Saturday afternoon in the high school auditorium. The meeting was in charge of the welfare department with Mrs. F. E. Duncan, chairman.

At this meeting the Home Hygiene class of twenty-five girls from the high school gave their closing exercises. This class was sponsored by the Woman's club, with Mrs. F. E. Duncan as instructor.

Several very interesting papers were read by members of the class. Mildred Bill gave a paper on the care of a communicable disease in the home, this was followed by Georgia Peterman who read a paper concerning diphtheria immunization, after this Josephine and Marjorie Miller dressed in Indian costume sang a duet in the Indian language. June Miller then explained how to give a bath and Eleanor Yocum described how to make a bed. At this time Florence Blekking favored with a piano solo. Josephine Miller gave definitions of medical terms, Ione Butterbaugh rendered a vocal solo.

Mrs. Ida May McCleary, chairman of the Lee County chapter of the American Red Cross gave a splendid talk. She gave a history of the Red Cross and told of the work it is doing in Lee county. Mrs. Church of Dixon, high school nurse, who has been teaching an adult class told of her work that she was doing daily in the schools of Dixon.

Mrs. F. E. Duncan presented each member of the class with a certificate. Before doing so she gave a talk concerning the calls and the studies. She explained that the work this class had just completed was the work of an adult class. The class had completed thirty hours of study. She expressed herself as very well pleased in every way.

Evelyn Kuhn thanked the Woman's club for making it possible for them to have the privilege of this class. The response was given by Mrs. Harry Patterson, president of the Woman's club. In her talk she said that this project of the Woman's club was the outstanding project of the year, and that the club was very much pleased over the success of the class. That the course had been very practical and could be used in their everyday life. She then very charmingly presented Mrs. Duncan with a gift from the Woman's club in appreciation of her work with this class of girls. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Harry Kint, Mrs. Cecil Cravens and Mrs. O. W. Cozzens.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, Mother's Day.

Mother's Day will be observed at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at 10:30 with special Mother's Day anthems by the church choir, a Mother's Day reading and an appropriate Mother's Day sermon by Rev. C. P. Blekking, B. D.

Miss Marie Black will conduct the Young People's meeting in the evening at 7 o'clock, on the subject, "The Golden Rule in the Home." It will be a Mother's Day meeting, to which the adults are urged to come. There will be a number of special musical selections.

W. C. T. U. Notes.
An unusually interesting meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held Friday, May 1, at the home of Mrs. C. A. Blocker of north of town. Mrs. O. D. Buck conducted devotions and in a brief business session Mrs. C. W. Lehman, the president, reported on the various funds to which the union contributes.

Mrs. F. E. Duncan as leader for the day, discussed the theme "Health," and how alcoholic content affects the body. One drink makes the driver incapable of driving a car not only for his own safety but for the safety of others. The British medical association after actual tests, proved that 3 ounces of whiskey diminish control and reasoning powers; coordination suffers and the eyes are not able to judge the approach of passing objects. The one who drinks believes he can drive better after a drink but the adverse effect is the truth. The amount of alcohol in one glass of whiskey is the same as that in six glasses of beer. During the present machine age it is certainly evident that employers cannot afford to hire men who drink.

Legalization of liquor has found no effective regulation, it has not eliminated the bootlegger, it has not added revenue as was expected.

Beverage alcohol and right conduct will not mix. Beverage alcohol and driving will not mix. One has only to read the papers to note the amazing increase in accidents. There are more arrests than before. The ultimate purpose of the Health Department of the W. C. T. U. is to rid the land of liquor. During prohibition many men carried milk in their lunch pails. Milk has all the necessary elements of food value while beer is cut in calories 4½ times as much as those in the better quality of milk. Life insurance companies insist that of all classes of people, users of alcohol are the greatest liabilities.

The next meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the camp ground on June 5. This is our annual picnic day and members are requested to bring guests. A variety program in charge of Mrs. Elizabeth Sunday will prove most interesting and inspiring. A poster exhibit made by the young people of the various churches will be an interesting and helpful feature. Plan now to be present.

Market and Food Sale.
Circle No. 1 of the Methodist food sale in the I. N. U. building Saturday, beginning at 10 o'clock. There will be on sale dressed chicken, cottage cheese, pies, cakes, cookies, biscuits, just everything that is good. Get your dinner for Sunday without any work.

Interesting Trip.
Misses Arlene Beachley and Leona Phillips who teach school in the rural district, took their pupils to Dixon Friday afternoon, where they visited the Borden milk factory, Beier's bakery and Banta's ice cream factory. The teachers and pupils are very enthusiastic over their trip and the way they were treated at the various places. In the candy department of the milk factory they were treated to candy and were remembered at the other two places.

Ravished Body of Little Girl Found

Waterville, Me., May 6.—(AP)—The ravished body of Mary Proulx, 7, missing since Sunday, was found Tuesday in a clump of bushes on the banks of a stream. The child had been bound and gagged and apparently died of strangulation.

Circumstances of the slaying were virtually the same as those in the unsolved slaying last October of Annie K. Knights, 12, school girl of nearby Fairfield. Medical Examiner Napoleon Bisson said the child had been assaulted.

Finance companies of the United States placed insurance on some 1,064,100 new and 1,354,600 used motor vehicles in 1934.

ASHTON NEWS

Ashton. — A musical comedy, "Crashing Thru," sponsored by the members of the Ashton fire department will be presented at the Mills and Petrie Memorial gymnasium this Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock. This home talent entertainment will be given by a cast of 60 characters under the direction of Miss Beth Duggs of Clinton, Tennessee.

The first act of "Crashing Thru" goes back to the period of 1898, or the horse and buggy days; while the second act presents the days of 1936, the age of jazz, automobiles, airplanes and all modern conveniences. The climax of the play is the third act, or the period of 1958, giving an idea of how we are to live in the future.

Other interesting and amusing features of the evening's performance will be the group of chorus girls in their various songs and dances and the appearance of Jimmy Durante, Mae West, Gracie Allen and a number of other stage celebrities.

Mrs. Vernon Smith, president of the Ashton Woman's club and Mrs. Cecil Calhoun, delegate from the Ashton club, will attend the 38th annual district convention held at the Presbyterian church in Sterling Thursday and Friday of this week.

During the afternoon of the first day of the convention the Lee County Woman's chorus will sing. Those from the local club who are members of this chorus are: Mrs. Roy Krug, Mrs. Adam Witzel, Mrs. Henry Schabacker, Mrs. Vernon Smith, Mrs. Laurence Jennings, Mrs. William F. Klingebiel, Mrs. Cecil Calhoun, Mrs. Orno Kersten, Mrs. Bert Vogeler and Mrs. Roy Ulrich.

At 11:15 A. M. Thursday, Mrs. R. M. Hutchinson, state Indian Welfare chairman, will speak and also Scott Peters, a Chippewa Indian. In the afternoon the principal address will be given by Dr. Samuel Garvin of the University of Dubuque. His subject will be "Shakespeare's Macbeth, a Study in Moral Consciousness."

On Friday morning the speakers will be Mrs. Carl H. Bartling of Rockford, state legislation chairman, and Rev. Allen Billman, pastor of the Fourth street Methodist church in Sterling. Mrs. Edward J. Lehman, president of the Illinois Federation, will speak Friday afternoon.

Perley Cross, supervisor of Pine Rock township, was elected chairman of the Ogle county board of supervisors at their meeting last week, held in the supervisor's room at the court house. Mr. Cross was first elected to the board in 1928 and has served his township in a highly efficient manner. During his term as supervisor he has served on various important board committees, among them Road and Bridge and County Home, to each of which fall much important work.

The dental office rooms of Dr. C. R. Root have been undergoing some extensive improvements the past week or so. The partition between the work room and waiting room has been moved to the south and windows cut above the partition, giving more light and better ventilation. New linoleum has been laid on the floors and the rooms have been repapered and painted. The office rooms down stairs are also being remodeled and redecorated, making the building very attractive in appearance.

Frank Oberg has been busy the past week tearing down some old sheds south of the alley back of his building. He expects to build a garage on the site which will greatly improve the looks of the alley.

The Royal Neighbors will hold their May meeting at the home of Mrs. Ray Pierce on Tuesday evening, May 12. All who desire to go are requested to be at the Ford garage by 7:30 that evening.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Evangelical church will entertain the Little Herads and their mothers and the Mission band Saturday afternoon, May 9, at two o'clock in the church parlors. There will be no meeting on Wednesday afternoon, the regular time of the meeting. All W. M. S. members are asked to bring their birthday money as the annual birthday party will be held at this meeting. The devotions will be in charge of Mrs. R. J. Krug and Mrs. W. J. Altig will present the topic.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Obourn were guests of relatives at Normal over the week end and also attended the state music contest held there on Saturday.

Mrs. Ralph Sanders and children of Chicago were guests at the home of her brother, Clarence Hart and family and other relatives during the past week.

At the state music contest held at Normal Friday and Saturday the Ashton high school orchestra and string ensemble placed in first group, clarinet quartet in second group and bass solo in third group.

DAILY HEALTH

The Lancet of England reports that "Mickey Mouse drew large and excited crowds to the Royal Society of Medicine and it was once more evident that the medical profession and its wives (sic) are only human after all."

The advent of Mickey Mouse, learnedly designated as Mus Ridiculus, in the dignified portals of the Royal Society of Medicine, was billed as a lecture on his anatomy and embryology. Dr. Robert Hutchison, in introducing him, compared Mickey to the celebrated Doctor Merryman, dispenser of good health, whose principal medicament was mirth and laughter.

But Mickey Mouse and the prototype animated cartoon have a just claim to serious consideration by science, in every one of its fields, including psychology.

Recently in an earnest paper on "Child Development and the Interpretation of Behavior," Prof. John E. Anderson of Minnesota observed that it would be interesting and worth while to speculate on the changes of behavior that could be effected by a removal from environment of its given limitations. The comic papers, he said, have pre-empted this field with their numerous funny and adventurous characters.

Even more so, however, is this the

State Hospital

William Miller and Lavine Pratt returned from a short vacation last evening.

Lester and Mildred Hubbard left last night on a month's vacation.

The entire employe personnel is looking forward to the return this evening of Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Murray.

Your correspondent returned Monday from a three weeks' visit at his home in Antioch, Ill.

We are glad to note our good friend Ben Golsen is at last on the road to complete recovery from the injury he received on his hand some time ago.

The ever genial Carl Tippet and his lovely bride left for Chicago last night to attend the last rites of one of Mrs. Tippet's relatives.

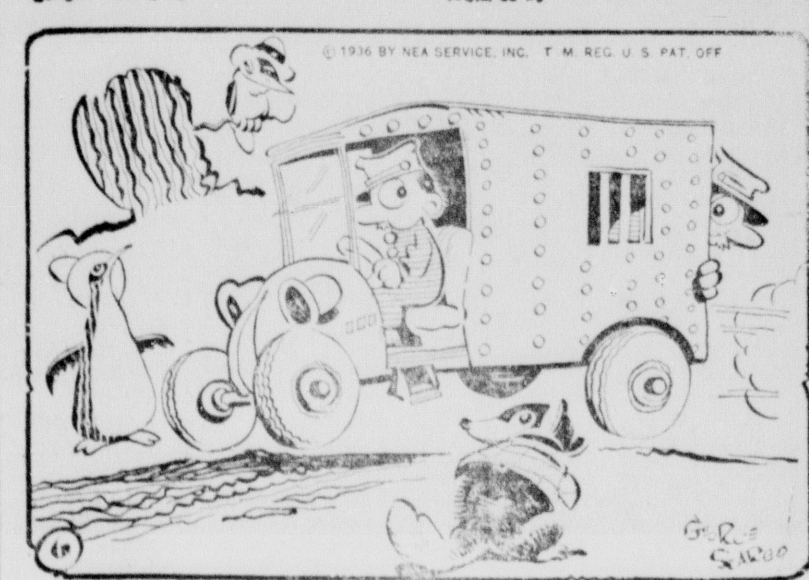

Rumor has it that "Judge" Gerald Waite of the night force will shortly undertake and exhaustive investigation to determine the exact distance from the hospital to Ashton. He is said to feel that the present existing maps are incorrect.

case with the animated cartoon. In this latter medium the fancy and imagination of mankind suffer no limitation. Neither gravity nor matter, anatomy nor physiology, time nor space need bind one by their tyrannical limitations.

However, the animated cartoon is not restricted to the field of humor and fancied adventure. Indeed, it has been utilized to illustrate the complicated processes of embryology, the development of the animal from the parental sexual cells. It has rendered easily comprehensible the processes of cell division and of other phases of biology and physics, which otherwise could be grasped only by intricate, laborious study.

THE TINY TINES

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

The old prospector's pigeon stayed on the ground a while and to a bank. The bank truck soon will let some of the tines stroke his back. "He likes me," Doty said.

"It is too bad he has to go. We'd have a lot of fun. I know. He's going to fly away. I wish that he'd stay here, instead."

"Oh, he'd get restless as could be," brave little Scouty said. "You see, he has been trained to fly around and find his way back home."

"Some pigeons by the wind are tossed, but if they're smart, they don't get lost. They always know what way to fly, no matter where they roam."

Then Goldy said, "I'm curious. I wish our old friend would tell us what he wrote in that message that the smart bird's going to take."

The old prospector smiled. Said he, "I want to keep my gold, you see. That's why I called the bird. A wise move I am going to make."

"Not far from here there is a town. That's where the pigeon will swoop down. He'll take my message to a bank. The bank truck soon will come. Then into it we'll load my gold. At my request, the bank will hold all of the fine wealth that I own. I guess I'm not so dumb."

Just then they heard a rumbling sound and, as the Tines looked around, one of the them cried, "It's coming, now. Two men are on the truck."

"Before they go, perhaps they'll let us have a ride. Some fun we'd get. Most everything our old friend thinks of give us heaps of luck."

The truck came chugging up, then stopped. And to the ground the two men hopped. The old prospector told them of his plan. They said, "Okay."

Then, when the two small men found out the Tines wished to ride about, one of them shouted, "Hop right in, and we'll be on our way."

(The truck is loaded with gold in the next story.)

Eat up distance, but not your bearings.
Get alloyed oil . . . and you'll get the difference

Ask your wife. The least little heat makes smoke out of some of the oily substances she puts in her frying pan. They vanish double quick, while others stay put.

That's the sort of difference your hilliest hot-weather drive will show you in Germ Processed, the alloyed oil. Patented.

It not only stays up around "Full," but stays right up in every working surface of your engine. Yes, the pistons, cylinders, valve gear, and any types of bearings ever used, can really take in this alloyed oil. You might say they become lastingly, smoothly "oil-glazed."

And you can see that this added sleek oil-surfacing, together with the high-durability Germ Processed oil-film, easily doubles your guard against summer grief. Now when you want to go farthest fastest, get Conoco Germ Processed oil—the alloyed oil. Continental Oil Company.

She said she shot herself accidentally.

Their Bridge Activities Abridged

Whether or not duplicate contract bridge is a gambling game was the question raised for court determination through the arrest of Miss Mildred Lovejoy (left) and Mrs. Adelaide Newirth, both noted tournament players, pictured at their arraignment in New York on charges of maintaining a gambling establishment. Police raiders found a group of duplicate players competing for cash prizes at their bridge studio.

FOLLY and FAREWELL

By Marie Blizard

BEGIN HERE TODAY

LINDA BOURNE, 20 years old, pretty, is left almost penniless by the sudden death of her father. PETER GARDINER, newspaper reporter, helps her get a job writing society news. Linda is in love with him, but he goes ahead to study singing. When Peter asks her to marry him she agrees, but postpones the wedding.

HONEY HARMON, film star, comes to Newtown, making a "personal appearance" tour. She buys a scenario written by Linda. Linda goes to Hollywood, and there, expressing ideas that are really Peter's, she acquires a reputation for being able to discover new stars. Soon she is a celebrity.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XIII

LINDA knew, the first moment that she saw him, that Basil Thorne would play an important part in her life, however brief that part might be. He was an enormous man and, looking at him, Linda Bourne remembered Cora Jarrett's saying, "I don't even know whether he is ugly or handsome."

Linda came upon him after she had discarded her traveling frock for a white knitted bathing suit, the slacks and cartwheel sun hat that was the accepted beach costume. Honey's house party was distributed over the playground of tennis courts and patio. Linda, hot and tired from the dusty motor trip, made her way to the beach. She dropped the slacks, and replaced the cartwheel with a bathing cap. The water was too tempting! She ran into it eagerly, and broke into the smooth stroke Pete Gardiner had taught her. Exhilarated and refreshed, she pulled herself up to the float and found herself not alone.

Thorne, in tight, his crinkly hair gleaming wetly in the sun, reached down a bronzed arm and drew her up. He didn't let her go for a moment until she got her footing, and for one breathless minute they clung together in the most impersonal way. Then, laughing and a little breathless, she drew away.

"THANKS," she said, drawing off the tight cap and shaking her head to free the water that had seeped around her curls.

"A pleasure," he said, taking her arm as her perilous footing on the wet flooring threatened to send her slipping into the water. "May I have the next minute?"

"You'll have to ask my father," she answered, and regarded him appraisingly. "You don't look the type for a minute at all."

"I'm not," he said. "I'm a prizefighter and I suppose you are a movie star."

"You're not, I'm sure," Linda felt very gay. "And you're not a Californian."

"You can't be sure of anything about me, but you are correct. I'm not a Californian. Why did you say that?"

"Because you couldn't possibly have mistaken me for a movie star."

"I know," he said. "You're the little girl who works at the ribbon counter, having a wonderful day at the beach."

"That's right," she answered gravely. "And I came here because I heard picture people do, and I always hoped some day I would meet a movie director who would be impressed with my expressive face, and you turn out to be a prizefighter!"

"Not a very good one," he said quickly.

"Oh, don't apologize. I'm not a very good ribbon clerk. I only sell the blue ribbon that ladies use to tie up old love letters. I'm working up to the apron-strings department."

Thorne had thrown himself full length beside her on the float and studied her thoughtfully, his chin supported by his hands.

"I don't think you'd make such a bad pair of apron-strings to be tied to. Young lady, you're the first girl I've met in Hollywood who looked like the kind of a girl a man might want to marry. How much of that ribbon for love letters have you sold to yourself?"

"Thanks for the implied compliment," Linda said drily. "I don't save either love letters or compliments."

"I'm not a marrying man myself, but if I change my mind may I come around and see you?"

"You'll have to ask my father," Linda drew her cap on hastily, and grasped the sides of the ladder.

"Wait a minute. I think I have changed my mind. May I swim you home?"

LINDA was several feet ahead of him. She raised her arm. It was an invitation.

"What's your name and where are you staying?" he shouted.

"I told you I wouldn't be fair," he said, "but I told you I'd make you like it."

In the darkness she could see the triumph in his smile. For a fleeting second she tried to understand herself. Had she liked it, or was the wild beating of her heart anger?

"I came out looking for something I thought I'd lost," Honey Harmon with an undertone of threat in her voice that women usually recognize, was at their side.

Basil Thorne stood beside her. She turned to speak to him, and he took her in his arms. He kissed her hard and murmured something she couldn't hear.

She tried to draw away. "That's not fair," she said.

"I told you I wouldn't be fair," he said, "but I told you I'd make you like it."

In the darkness she could see the triumph in his smile. For a fleeting second she tried to understand herself. Had she liked it, or was the wild beating of her heart anger?

STORIES IN STAMPS

By I. S. Klein

JOSE MARIA CORDOBA, son of a wealthy Spanish merchant, had a world of promise and riches before him, as he grew up in his native state of Antioquia, South America. At the age of 15, however, his youthful blood revolted against the injustices of the Spanish royalists, and he cast his lot with the struggling masses.

At the bloody battle of Boyaca, Cordoba distinguished himself; then, in later clashes with armies led by men of his own class, he gained fame as a leader. He became a general in the army of that great revolutionary leader, Simon Bolivar, and went with him into Peru for the conquest of that territory.

When Bolivar, however, sought virtual dictatorship of the country he had taken, Cordoba withdrew his men and turned against the leader in revolt. He died in battle, a revolutionist against a revolutionist.

Columbia has issued several stamps in honor of this daring leader. The one shown here was issued in 1899 on the 70th anniversary of Cordoba's death at the age of only 36.

VISITING PRINCETON

Richard Ferris, who has been with the Reformation department of the CCC work being carried on by the State Park workers at Ardmore, Okla., is visiting in Princeton at the home of his mother, Mrs. Sue Ferris. He expects to remain in Princeton about ten days.

PRINCETON COUNCIL IN REGULAR MONDAY SESSION

The mayor and entire commission met in regular session Monday night. Commissioner Vane having recovered from a recent indisposition.

After the approval of the minutes of the last meeting, the floor was given to a delegation of north end business men, 13 of whom were present. J. A. Omen acted as spokesman for the delegation, and requested that the salary of John Yepsen, night patrolman at the north end be raised to a parity with the other patrolmen in the city. Mr. Omen stated that there had never been a complaint on Mr. Yepsen's services, and the duties were the same as those performed by the south end police, although Mr. Yepsen received less pay. Harry Swanson, President of the Booster club, spoke briefly in support of the request. Mayor Avery promised that in framing the new salary ordinance the council would take the request into consideration.

Mayor Avery notified the council that the Needlework Guild had turned over to the Solum Investment Board the securities donated by that body recently, the income from the fund to be used to beautify and maintain the Solum at the Hospital. The fund is to be administered by a board composed of the Mayor, Commissioner of Finance and City Attorney. Notifications were received from the Illinois Commerce Commission of the filing with that body of applications for certificates of convenience and necessity by Deotru Transfer Company and Deotru Cartage Company.

The following bills and payrolls were allowed: Public Affairs $94.75; General Government $200.55; Fire and Health $352.74; Streets and Alleys $687.08; Engineering $106.03; Sewage Plant $42.50; Cemetery $543.56; Library $417.81; Hospital $3546.88; Water and Light $4693.18 and Storm Sewer $1683.90. The last item is payable out of the proceeds of the recent bond issue.

A special perpetual care fund was established for care of the cemetery lot of Frank Shepard.

The Fire Department asked the Council for confirmation for the following officers elected by the department: Chief, Emil Swanson; Fire Warden, P. B. Aldrich and Fire Truck Driver, P. I. Berry. Commissioner Peterson moved for confirmation which was unanimously voted.

Commissioner Higgins moved the granting of a theater permit to S. T. Traynor manager of the Apollo theater, cigarette licenses to A & P Tea Co., W. Roy Robinson, Ellberg Bros., H. G. Gibbs and Kroger Co. and pool hall licenses to W. Roy Robinson and Ellberg Bros., all of which were granted.

Police report was read and approved. Chief Baxter's report showed that warnings for violation of the 90 minute parking ordinance had decreased 90%. It also showed that 261 transients were lodged by the department in the city jail.

The report of the City Nurse showed 27 suspected cases of communicable disease. The report also announced that the joint P. T. A. organizations of the city would entertain the incoming first grade pupils at the Douglas school on May 19. This is an annual event, at which time the new students are introduced to school life.

Commissioner Higgins also reported that there have been a large number of complaints about the safety lights located at the C. B. & Q. crossing on North Main street. On at least one occasion lately they have failed to work, and an accident was narrowly averted. The north end delegation heartily endorsed a resolution to negotiate with the railroad company to the end that a watchman might be added as a safety measure, and the city attorney was instructed to prepare a petition to the Commerce Commission asking for the watchman.

Mr. Omen again spoke up and informed the Council that during the Gunning administration, consent had been given by the city to the railroad to remove the watchman who had formerly been on duty, and branded the action as a mistake.

Plumbers license was granted to Hugh Johnson on motion of Commissioner Vane. He also read the city engineer's report, showing the following expenditures: Office $10; truck maintenance $31.60 and storm sewer supplies $1527.97.

Commissioner Kullmer reported the Diesel engine working again after a breakdown due to a faulty gasket. The council then adjourned to the City Clerk's office for an informal discussion on the new salary and appropriation ordinances which will probably be passed in the next two weeks. The next meeting will be held Monday, May 11.

McCahey, Tex., held Texas' first rattlesnake derby as a feature of the tenth birthday of the oil town.

U. S. Army Still Has Some Rough Riders

The Rough Riders designation for cavalrymen has been relegated to history, but that present-day U. S. Army horsemen could hold their own with the best in Teddy Roosevelt's famous corps is suggested by this remarkable picture of rigorous riding. Charging down the steep slope are members of the army equestrian team in a practice ride at Fort Riley, Kans. They will compete in the Olympics games at Berlin this summer.

ROCHELLE NEWS

By ARTHUR T. GUEST

Rochelle--On Friday evening, at 7:30 P. M. the local grade schools will present their annual physical education exhibition, "International Review." These programs were previously given in the afternoon, but school authorities have received many requests for an evening performance to enable the fathers of the children to see the program.

Over four hundred children will take part in the work this year which has been built about a peace theme. Besides being a program of action it will also present in pageantry the history of the development of physical education throughout the world. Comparison will be offered between the formal training of some European countries and the more informal program finding favor in the United States.

Costumes native to the people of the European countries represented in this program will be worn by the children and the old folk dances of many nationalities will be presented.

A conference of world representatives will discuss the plans now being carried out in many countries concerning the education and training of their youth. The program offers a cross section of the work being done in physical education superimposed on a theme of cultural value.

The procession will start promptly at 7:30 P. M. and the program will be presented in the gymnasium of the Rochelle Township High School.

Anthony D. Delmont, aged 19, a son of Anna and Phillip Delmont of Flag Center, has enlisted for a three year enlistment in the United States Army Field Artillery and expects to be stationed at Fort Sheridan for training. Mr. Delmont served an enlistment in the civilian conservation corps for the period April 18, 1935 to October 15, 1935 during which time he was stationed with the 1695th Co., at Camp Mountain and with the 3643rd Company at Camp Bear Paw, both located at Mountain, Wisconsin and holds an honorable discharge. This was a reforestation project and Camp Bear Paw was built by the unit F-19, Wisconsin. Phillip Delmont, father of Anthony, is section foreman for the C. B. & Q. Railroad at Flag Center. Mr. Delmont has previously passed the army physical examination but has now been delayed in his enlistment due to delay in securing his birth certificate. He hopes to eventually get into the coast artillery branch.

Junior Larson of Rochelle, recently enlisted in the field artillery and is stationed at Fort Sheridan for training. He is a son of Fred Larson of Rochelle. Junior was home in uniform over the week end visiting his father and his grandmother, Mrs. Tilda Larson, who is confined to her bed with illness.

Ann Rutherford, 17-year-old tress, bought used bricks and cleaned herself to build a patio fireplace at her Encino home.

Three couple of ages averaging 72 years were married in Salem, Ore., recently at a single wedding.
